■ACTUATION AREA

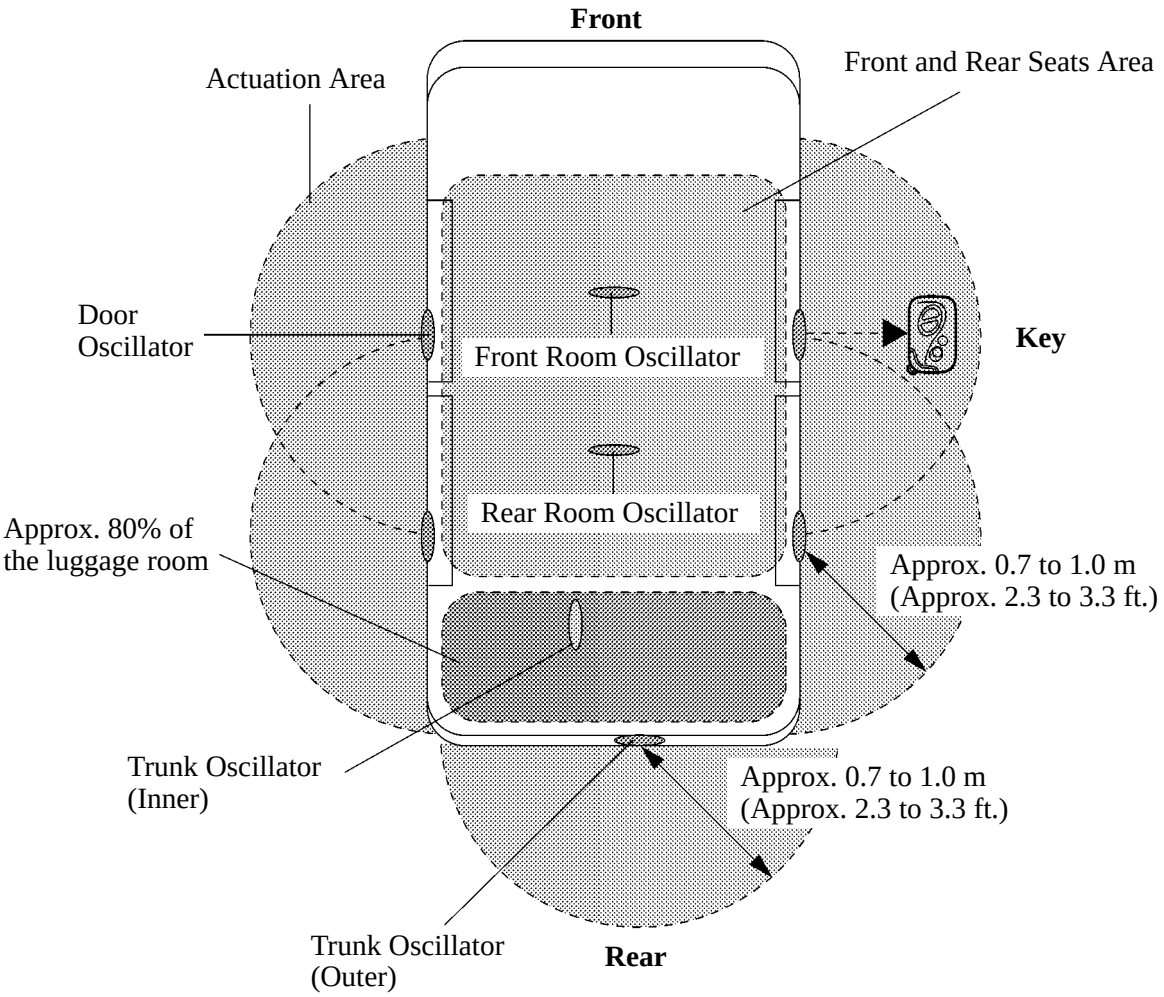
The special functions of the smart access system with push button start only work when the key is in the actuation area formed by the eight oscillators.

- The front and rear room oscillators form the actuation area of the push button start function.
- The four door oscillators and inner and outer trunk oscillators form the actuation area of the entry function.



01YBE64P